

The Rib Lake Herald

10847

XII—NO. 32

RIB LAKE, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, JULY 11, 1919.

CHANGE IN ROAD LAWS.

Volume known as Town Laws, 1917, containing herein are contained, the laws relating to highways and bridges were enacted and have been addition of the legislation at time. The new governing the construction and bridges, however, the same union of the legislation the passage of 1933A, the town laws were rewritten so far as the maintenance of highway and maintenance. The change is an

LANGE—LEICHER.

Gust Lange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Lange of Chelsea, and Miss Florence Leicher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leicher of the Town of Westboro, were married Tuesday afternoon, 2 o'clock, at Whittlesy. Rev. Grubber of the Lutheran church performed the ceremony.

Melvin Leicher, brother of the bride acted as best man and Miss Sylvia Rice was bridesmaid.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the brides parents. In the evening a grand wedding dance was given at the Chelsea opera house. A large crowd was present and danced to the beautiful strains of music rendered by the Anderson orchestra.

The groom, a resident of our neighboring village, has a wide acquaintance here and is admired for his good qualities. For some time he has been Chelsea

A view of part of the parade coming down McComb Avenue.

HOME-COMING CELEBRATION A GRAND SUCCESS.

In spite of the unfavorable followed by the tolling of a

AL
For t
to goo
organiz
Mills o
tunity.
capital
into $8
$7,000
ferred
per cen
prefere
Our
rapidly
supply
farmers
distan
satisfac
right h
much
bids fa
ventur
The
this mi
that us
Compa
John's
ville, M
land, a best a